LESSON DETAILS

PEE WEE: The class focuses on fun and games so children in this age group old can associate tennis with enjoyment. The program involves eye-hand coordination games, moving and running games and most of all, fun and play for the duration of the class.

GRIPPER: Children will learn the basics of the tennis game while having loads of fun enjoying their time on court. Forehands, backhands, volleys and serves are all the basic strokes which Grippers will master. Mini tennis and plenty of tennis based games.

HITTER: All stokes of tennis will be covered, with the drills becoming more movement orientated and the games leading towards more tennis point play.

JUNIOR 1: All stokes of tennis will be covered, with the drills becoming more movement orientated and the games leading towards more tennis point play.

JUNIOR LEVEL 2: Player with a good knowledge of the game will look to JUNIOR LEVEL 2 for a more serious playing environment. Some aspects of the course include directional hitting, smashes, serving, point play and physical fitness.

JUNIOR LEVEL 3: Players have the opportunity to develop into serious tennis players. Holistic approach to training will allow players to take their game play to an even higher level, with drilling and focus not only on game strokes, game play, but also on game strategy and physical fitness.
