Dear Members,

When I look back on the 68th AGM, I am heartened to see a continued sense of community and shared interest among you. Your participation, feedback and support help guide the Club's progress, and contribute to keeping it a welcoming place for members of all ages.

On behalf of the General Committee, I extend my sincere appreciation to all who attended and supported this year's meeting. We remain committed to strengthening engagement, encouraging inclusivity, and building on what we have achieved as we work together toward a vibrant and sustainable future for our Club.

August promises to be an exhilarating month at the Club! Indulge in a delectable Asian Fusion dining experience at the Garden Grill, and immerse yourself in the vibrant atmosphere as live music lights up the Club. Do not miss two special evenings at Club Twenty-Two: on 2 August, dance the night away with the EZ4U Band; on 9 August, celebrate our nation's independence at our National Day Dance Party featuring Memory Lane. These two events are going to be packed with great food, music and energy — you will not want to miss them!

As we approach Singapore's 60th National Day on 9 August, let us come together to celebrate our nation's unity and progress. This occasion serves as a reminder of our shared heritage, and the collective spirit that binds us all. For those who are joining us for the National Day Carnival on 9 August, I look forward to joining you at the Club's Main Lobby, which will be overflowing with activities. Highlights include a cake-cutting ceremony, live band, indoor bouncy castle, water obstacle, food stations, and many more!

Looking ahead to September, the excitement continues with hearty Bavarian fare at Garden Grill, live music every week at the Crossroads Lounge, and our popular Saturday Night Live sessions featuring DJ Dennis Goh. Plus, mark your calendars for 6 September and gear up for the PINPULSE Sports Fiesta at Gardens Bowl, part of the Club's 70th Anniversary celebrations. Bring along your friends and family for a colourful day of games, laughter and community spirit.

You are invited to Serangoon Gardens Country Club's grandest event yet: the 70th Anniversary Gala Dinner! Join us on 10 October 2025 at the Kensington Ballroom for an unforgettable evening of legacy, laughter and lasting memories. Come dressed in your finest Retro & Vintage Chic attire to enjoy a night of nostalgia, camaraderie and festivity, with electrifying live performances by Uberjam as well as Alex and The X-Side Men. You also stand a chance to walk away with exciting lucky draw prizes!

Let us come together in the true spirit of SGCC — Celebrating Our Legacy, Embracing the Future.

Warm regards,

Mathivanan Krishnan

SGCC 68th Annual General Meeting 29 June 2025

The 68th Annual General Meeting (AGM) was held on 29 June at the Kensington Ballroom. Registration commenced at 11.30am, with members arriving punctually to sign in before enjoying a delicious buffet thoughtfully prepared by the Food & Beverage team. The registration process was conducted smoothly and efficiently.

At 1pm, with the required quorum of 100 members successfully met, the General Committee officially called the meeting to order, marking the start of the AGM proceedings.

Club President, Mr Mathivanan Krishnan, opened the session with a warm message to members, followed by an update on the Club's recent refurbishment achievements. These included the upgraded Coffee Deli serving area, improvements to the outdoor BBQ area, replacement of the swimming pool filtration system, renovation of the Garden Grill toilet facilities, and a refreshed Kiddieland play area. These enhancements reflect the Club's ongoing commitment to elevating the member experience and maintaining a welcoming, family-friendly environment.

The Any Other Business (AOB) segment of the meeting saw engaged and thoughtful participation from members, with a broad range of topics discussed — including financial matters, suggestions for enhancing Club facilities, and important concerns regarding changes to outlet operational hours, new charges, and programming for seniors. The General Committee sincerely acknowledges and values the feedback shared. These matters will be further revisited and addressed at the upcoming Townhall session, which is scheduled to take place within the next three months.

The meeting concluded at 5pm, having comprehensively covered the full agenda. We would like to express our heartfelt thanks to all members who took the time to attend and contribute. Your voices are vital to the continued growth and vibrancy of our Club. This year's AGM provided a meaningful platform to strengthen communication between the General Committee and our wider membership, fostering deeper understanding and encouraging diverse perspectives. We remain committed to reflecting on your input and working together to shape a more inclusive, responsive and forward-looking SGCC community.

New Members' Gathering

5 July 2025

The New Members' Gathering on 5 July was a vibrant celebration of community, connection and Club spirit, made even livelier with a festive Hawaiian theme at Serangoon Gardens Country Club's Beer Garden and Crossroads Lounge. The venue came alive with colourful tropical décor and island-inspired accents, creating a warm, inviting atmosphere that instantly transported guests to a lush tropical escape.

Members turned up in full island style — leis, floral shirts, and other breezy outfits filled the room with colour and cheer. This enthusiastic embrace of the theme added to the immersive experience, and set the tone for an evening filled with laughter, camaraderie and celebration.

The gathering provided the ideal setting for new members to feel welcome and included, with a cosy, intimate layout that encouraged easy conversations and meaningful connections. Laughter and friendly chatter echoed throughout the evening as guests indulged in a mouthwatering barbecue spread, featuring sizzling grilled meats, fresh seafood, and timeless sides — all perfectly complemented by refreshing tropical beverages that kept spirits high.

To spark interaction and bring everyone together, interactive icebreaker games were woven into the evening's programme. These lighthearted moments drew plenty of smiles and helped foster new friendships, reinforcing the Club's commitment to a welcoming and inclusive environment. Many members shared that they truly appreciated the opportunity to engage with fellow new members, committee representatives, and Club staff — creating meaningful bonds and a strong sense of belonging from the outset.

The highlight of the evening was a live performance by Derrick and Tallin, whose soulful vocals and dynamic energy had guests tapping, swaying and singing along to familiar favourites. Members also expressed how much they enjoyed the vibrant atmosphere, upbeat music, delectable food and drinks, and fun-filled games — all of which contributed to a truly memorable night.

With delicious food, engaging activities, and memorable entertainment, the New Members' Gathering was more than just an event — it was a warm, spirited welcome to our newest members, and a beautiful reflection of the community spirit that defines Serangoon Gardens Country Club.

Kensington Ballroom Refurbishment and New Look

We are excited to announce that, after undergoing major refurbishment, the Kensington Ballroom has been transformed into a modern and sophisticated venue that better meets the evolving needs of our clients.

The newly upgraded space boasts a brighter, more inviting atmosphere, with fresh carpeting, new paint, updated lighting, fixtures, and state-of-the-art AV equipment. There's a reason why the Kensington Ballroom has been a popular venue for a wide range of iconic events: it's been — and continues to be — a versatile space that can be configured for a variety of setups suitable for both small and large gatherings, ranging from 50 to 500 guests. Whether it's for lectures, banquets, conferences or other events, the newly renovated Kensington Ballroom is ready to host your next special occasion.

Same Same but Different

With National Day around the corner, it's time to embrace our beloved food culture again. But, instead of enjoying your favourites the traditional way, why not try these dishes in unconventional formats?

Some traditional local desserts have been adapted into ice cream flavours and Western-style cakes.

Local desserts as cake

In its original form, ondeh ondeh are little, bite-sized balls of pandan-flavoured rice flour that contain gooey gula melaka, and are covered in grated coconut. But the dish has, for some years now, been re-interpreted by bakeries here as an actual, Western-style cake. Typically, the structure is formed by layers of pandan-flavoured sponge cake and gula melaka filling. The whole outer portion is then covered by pandan cream followed by a dusting of grated coconut.

Other desserts that have been cake-ified include orh nee, kaya, putu piring, and pulut hitam. We've also seen swiss rolls filled with kaya instead of the usual fruit jams.

Ice cream with localised flavours

Another way that ondeh ondeh is being re-interpreted is in ice cream form. The main flavour is the pandan/coconut mix of the original rice flour covering, with mochi bits thrown in to replicate the signature chewiness of the original form.

Other local desserts that have been given the ice cream treatment include kaya toast and pulut hitam.

Kaya is already eaten as a smooth paste, usually spread on thin slices of toast, so transitioning into an ice cream format is not such a huge

Potato crisps in CNY-themed flavours such as Bak Kwa are now available in NTUC FairPrice supermarkets.

Old Seng Choon offers cookies in savoury flavours such as Bak Kut Teh and Cereal Prawn.

departure from the norm. As for the 'toast', some brands throw in crunchy salted crumble to replicate the texture.

Pulut hitam is a thick porridge of black glutinous rice, usually eaten warm with a large dollop of coconut cream. So having this dessert in an ice cream form would be a refreshing change in our hot and humid weather.

Everything is now a crisp flavour...

Potato crisps no longer just come in 'barbecue', 'sour cream and onion', or 'hot and spicy', not in Singapore, anyway!

Early this year, NTUC FairPrice launched three CNY-flavoured crisps: Bak Kwa, Yusheng with Plum Sauce, and Tomato Hotpot. Considering the prices of the real things during that festive period, these products are pocket-friendly ways to satisfy those cravings!

But F.EAST (Flavours of the East) is way ahead, having launched its Hainanese Chicken Rice and Singapore Laksa potato crisps back in 2017. As almost every country around the region has its own recipe of the Hainanese Chicken Rice, the crisp flavour is based on the Singapore version, with strong hints of ginger and sesame oil. Similarly, the flavour of the Laksa crisps is based on the local version of the noodle dish, which is served in a fiery, coconut-based broth. F.EAST now offers two other flavours: Egg Prata with Fish Curry, and Beef Rendang. Beef rendang originates from the Minangkabau region of Indonesia, and has been voted No. 1 in the World's 50 Most Delicious Foods in online polls organised by CNN in 2011 and 2017. As for the other flavour of crisp, the spiciness of the curry is balanced by the mildness of the egg flavour.

...or a cookie flavour

Do you like cereal prawn, bak kut teh, or satay? Well, you can now enjoy the flavour of these dishes in the form of bite-sized cookies from Old Seng Choon, which aims to preserve the traditions of Singapore's rich culinary heritage in a fast-moving environment.

The Cereal Prawn cookies come in an intoxicating mix of fragrances of curry leaves and Nestum cereal. The Bak Kut Teh cookies are infused with herbs and spices, particularly white pepper; just like the real deal, prepare some tea to have with these cookies. To those who prefer their satay on a stick, we say give these Satay cookies a try. It probably reminds you more of the dipping sauce, with its flavours of peanut, cumin and chilli.

Earlier, we talked about a potato crisp in Laksa flavour. There is a cookie version that, called Shrimp Laksa cookies, produced by The Cookie Museum. This brand also produces cookies flavoured in probably the most Singaporean dish of all, Chilli Crab!

The crisp flavour that started the localisation trend in savoury snacks was arguably Hainanese Chicken Rice by F.EAST.

CHEERS TO 70 YEARS

To celebrate Serangoon Gardens Country Club's 70th Anniversary this year, we are proud to present a commemorative wine from Domaine Labruyère to mark this milestone.

Coeur de Terroirs – Heart of the Land

Domaine Labruyère is a family-owned winery that has been producing wines in the Moulin-à-Vent appellation of Beaujolais since 1850. Since 2008, Edouard Labruyère, the seventh generation, has been at the helm, continuing the tradition with the same passion, devotion, and dedication.

Tasting Notes:

Coeur de Terroirs is a medium-bodied wine with a complex profile, complemented by subtle notes of spice and ripe blackberry fruit. It opens smoothly on the palate, followed by a gentle tannic structure that lingers on the finish, adding depth and elegance.

Grape Variety: 100% Gamay

BRIDGING MEDICINE AND ATHLETICS: INSIGHTS ON SPORTS INJURIES WITH DR TOON

30 May 2025
Kensington Ballroom 2

Attendees of this talk gained valuable insights into the prevention and management of sports injuries. It was led by Dr Toon, who not only has medical training, but has been involved in CrossFit for more than a decade. He was thus able to share his experiences from the therapist's as well as the athlete's viewpoints. Many stayed on after the session to enjoy light refreshments and to have further discussions with the good doctor.

SWIMMERS' GET-TOGETHER SESSION

30 May 2025
Kensington Ballroom 2

Tang Si Yuan has qualified for the 47th SEA Age Aquatics Championship.

Jointly hosted by SGCC and Quattor Swim School, this was an occasion for the swimming fraternity within the Club, and those interested to join it, to socialise, get to know the school, and the direction it intends to take for the near future. It was also the perfect time to announce that Tang Si Yuan has qualified for the 47th SEA Age Aquatics Championship. Congratulations — we know you're going to do SGCC proud representing Singapore.

55TH SINGAPORE NATIONAL AGE GROUP 2025

14–16 (Juniors) & 18–23 (Seniors) March 2025

OCBC Aquatics

The recent Singapore National Age Group Swimming Championships, held at the OCBC Aquatics Centre, saw impressive performances from both junior and senior swimmers. The event showcased the dedication and hard work of athletes as they competed fiercely in individual and relay events.

Total Medal Count: SGCC swimmers brought home a total of seven medals – four silver, two bronze, and one bronze in a relay event, marking a commendable achievement for the Club.

Junior Team Review: The SGCC junior team, made up of 13 swimmers, participated in 31 individual entries and five relay teams. Their collective effort resulted in three silver medals and one bronze medal, making it a highly successful outing for the team. The members exhibited exceptional skill, teamwork and determination, contributing to their strong overall performance. The relay teams displayed remarkable coordination, which undoubtedly helped to bring home multiple medals.

Senior Team Review: The SGCC senior team, made up of six swimmers, participated in 18 individual events and one relay team. While their focus was more on individual events compared to the juniors, the seniors showed remarkable teamwork and collaboration, especially in their lone relay event. Their competitive spirit was also very much alive.

GLOW SQUAD SPORTS CAMP 20252-4 June 2025*Ballroom

The camp participants taking a break from a host of exciting activities.

From 2-4 June, the Sports & Recreation Team brought the heat with our Glow Squad Sports Camp 2025 — and it was nothing short of electrifying!

Over the course of three vibrant days, 40 enthusiastic participants took part in a series of action-packed activities designed to inspire, challenge and connect. Each day focused on a meaningful core value, brought to life through engaging games and team experiences:

Day 1 – Teamwork & Confidence

Day 2 – Self-discovery & Respect

Day 3 – Gratitude

The camp was a celebration of movement, growth and glowing positivity. Thanks to everyone who showed up with energy, courage and spirit — you truly made the camp unforgettable!

2025 FRENCH NATIONAL DAY SQUASH21 June 2025*SGCC Squash Court / Crossroads Lounge

On June 21, 2025, we hosted the first edition of the French National Day Squash Event, bringing together over 30 enthusiastic players for a friendly team competition.

The crème de la crème of the French squash community took the lead to celebrate their National Day, albeit a bit early since it officially falls on the 14 July. The event coincided with World Music Day, a celebration that originated in France in 1982 as Fête de la Musique.

After the games, participants enjoyed a delicious and typically French pastis, followed by a more locally inspired menu. Thanks to our sponsors, LePetitDepot.com and Pernod Ricard. The evening culminated in a splendid farandole of French desserts, generously sponsored by Renaud.

Special thanks to S&R Chairman and Honorary Treasurer Gerade Gomez, the Squash Convenor JP Filhol, and the organising committee members Julien, Lionel, Mac, Renaud and Thierry for their collective efforts. Your support and dedication were instrumental in making this event memorable for all involved. It was a fantastic occasion that fostered community spirit and sportsmanship among squash enthusiasts.

PICKLEBALL SOCIAL PLAY!

9 May 2025

10 Tebing Lane

On 9 May 2025, 20 enthusiastic members came together for an exciting session of Pickleball Social Play! The event was filled with laughter, friendly rallies, and light competition — perfect for both newcomers and seasoned players. With everyone embracing the spirit of the game, the session offered a great mix of fitness, fun and social connection. Here's to more pickleball moments ahead.

They're ready to make a racket with their rackets!

MAT PILATES

Move better, feel stronger — from the mat up. Mat Pilates may look simple, but don't be fooled — it's a powerhouse for your core, posture and total body awareness. No machines are needed; it's just you, your mat, and the magic of mindful movement. This course:

- is perfect for beginners
- builds strength and stability
- improves posture, mobility and focus
- is functional, and will help you move with ease in everyday life

About the Trainer

Joanne Tay began her Pilates journey 15 years ago, seeking balance amidst the demands of her active, sporty lifestyle. What she found was a practice that was both calming and powerful — one that strengthened her core, lengthened her muscles, and grounded her mind.

Her connection to Pilates deepened through personal adversity. After suffering two back injuries and undergoing two knee surgeries for ACL and meniscus reconstruction, Pilates became more than just a form of exercise — it became a path to healing. Through mindful movement and breath, Jo experienced firsthand the body's remarkable ability to recover, grow stronger, and transform.

HAPPY NEIGONG

Neigong refers to the cultivation of deep internal qi (energy). Regular practice can result in a dynamic transformation in one's health.

About the Trainer

An elected Extraordinary Master of the World for two consecutive years, Master Jennifer Lee is the 22nd generation lineage holder of the Zi Wu Men traditional of neigong. Zi Wu Men Gong Fu has a 900-year-old history. With an entry in the Singapore Book of Records, Master Lee is a versatile teacher with over 35 years of international teaching experience and is highly sought-after for her modern approach to ancient health techniques.

Foundation Training
(1-hour sessions)

The sessions will work on 'opening' the joints, regulating the breath, and getting the general qi flowing. Participants will learn to realign the structure of their body and master basic postures and moves while improving their motor skills. They will also learn the precise and intense stretching of the tendons and muscles coupled with breathing techniques.

Day/Time: Thursdays, 4.30pm–5.30pm
Venue: Club 22
Fee: $74.12* (Member) | $85.57* (Guest)

Shakshuka

(Middle Eastern Baked Eggs)

A vibrant one-pan dish of poached eggs in spiced tomato and pepper sauce — hearty, healthy, and perfect for sharing.

Ingredients (Serves 2-3):

- ✓ 1 tbsp olive oil
- ✓ 1 small onion, diced
- ✓ 1 red bell pepper, diced
- ✓ 2 garlic cloves, minced
- ✓ 1 tsp paprika
- ✓ ½ tsp ground cumin
- ✓ ¼ tsp chilli flakes (optional)
- ✓ 1 can (400g) chopped tomatoes
- ✓ Salt and black pepper, to taste
- ✓ 3-4 eggs
- ✓ Fresh coriander or parsley, chopped (for garnish)
- ✓ Optional: crumbled feta, toasted bread or pita for serving

Instructions:

1. Heat olive oil in a skillet over medium heat.
2. Add onion and bell pepper; cook until softened (about 5-6 minutes).
3. Stir in garlic, paprika, cumin, and chilli flakes. Cook for another 30 seconds until fragrant.
4. Pour in the chopped tomatoes. Season with salt and pepper. Let the mixture simmer for 10-15 minutes until slightly thickened.
5. Use a spoon to make small wells in the sauce and gently crack an egg into each one. Cover the pan with a lid and cook for 5-7 minutes, or until the egg whites are set and yolks are still soft (or to your liking).
6. Remove from heat, sprinkle with fresh herbs and feta if using. Serve warm with crusty bread or pita.
