wine list

This journey started with us wanting to showcase to you the wonderful world of wines.

We wanted you to be amazed that a Sauvignon Blanc in Loire tastes so different from one in Marlborough. Or that a Shiraz in Margaret River is so unlike a Syrah from Northern Rhone. It is all about the Terroir: the soil, the climate, the altitude, the geography.

We wanted you to experience the interplay between Nature and the Winemaker, and how that absolutely succulent and delicious bottle is now before you. So, we invite you to flip through this List and join us in this journey.

“ Wine cheers the sad, revives the old,
inspires the young, and makes weariness forget his toil. ”

Monte Campo Amarone Valpolicella 2018

CORVINA
